Invitation for

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST to serve as EVALUATOR

The Central Procurement Board (CPB) is a Public Body, set up under Section 8 of the Public Procurement Act 2006 and is inter-alia responsible to select persons from a list of qualified evaluators maintained by it to act as members of a bid evaluation committee and oversee the examination and evaluation of bids;

The CPB is required, under the Act, to maintain and update a list of qualified evaluators to serve as members on Bid Evaluation Committees (BEC) for the evaluation of bids.

With a view to widening and updating its database of evaluators, the CPB calls for expression of interest from Public Officers, Professionals of Private Sector, as well as retired Professionals in related fields of competencies such as medical, pharmaceutical, architecture, engineering, quantity surveying, accountancy, finance, ICT, human resource, etc.

Evaluators are remunerated at approved hourly rates. Additional information on fees payable may be viewed on the CPB website at <http://cpb.govmu.org>.

Interested parties are requested to fill in the Registration Form EV1 which can be downloaded from the CPB website. The form duly filled in and accompanied by relevant CVs should be forwarded the under mentioned address.
